John W. Murray, house burning. Arraigned and plead "not guilty." Jury respited.

Gov. Wells, the District Atterney, and W. A. Cook sparred a little pesterday on the Utiman (Treasury robbery) case. Mr. Cook, after stating that he had been ready for months to proceed with the trial of Utiman, gave notice that he would ask on to day that the case be continued another week. He would predicate his motion for continuance on the ground that his most important witnesses were absent, and that ex-Senator Matt. Carpenter, who has been retained in Ottman's decirate, desires several days in which to examine into the case. Mr. Clook will make a formal motion to the above effect to day, and, from the remarks of his Honor yesterday, it is probable that Utiman will not be put upon trial before to day week. Utiman was in court, and his friends declare that he is comfortably off in prison, he having gained forty pounds of flesh since his locarceration. Criminal Court-Judge Macarthur.
